

Don't just learn about the world. Lead it.

At Baylor, we created Global Scholars to help students connect deeply to the people and places beyond their backyards. Because that's how we get the kind of leaders the world needs today. After all, there's way more to the world than what we read in textbooks.

TAKE A TOUR

APPLY NOW

To be a Global Scholar

Talk the Talk

Take 4+ years of Chinese, French, Spanish, Latin, or German.

Go Anywhere

From South Africa to Panama to India, you can go out and explore the world.

Take a Class

Pick a course or activity that focuses on an international topic.

Do the Project

Start an initiative, write a research presentation – your Capstone is your oyster.

Where in the world will Baylor lead you?

Global Scholars have tons of ways to go abroad. They're hiking the Himalayas during Walkabout trips. Immersing themselves in language in places like France and Spain. Getting service experience in Jamaica. And swapping places with international students through exchange programs.

Leading across 6 continents.

(These are some of the places Baylor students have traveled - Antarctica, we're coming for you.)
